AUSTIN THOMPSON

Art Form: Puppetry

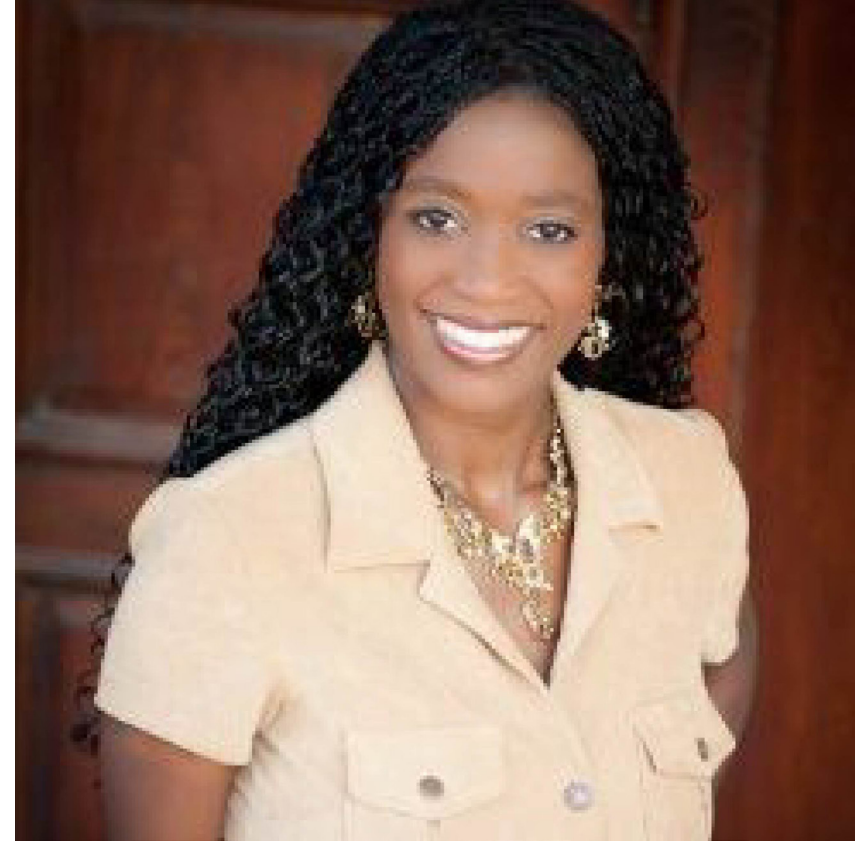

Austin's love of puppetry started at a very young age. In college, Austin was hired by the City of Orlando Puppet Troupe where he was able to meet other puppeteers and continue to learn all that he could about puppetry. A highlight during this time was performing a show for Heather Henson and her mother at the Puppet Slam Festival. Austin now travels across the country with his wife (Air Force) connecting with different puppet guilds and puppeteers. From time to time he still goes to Orlando to perform in the Puppet Slams and has had the chance to meet Leslie Carrara-Rudolph. Austin started his own puppet troupe and company to educate children and adults about the joy of puppetry and the various puppet art forms. Crosstitch Productions has allowed Austin to continue to educate others in the art form of puppetry, techniques, and how to fabricate puppets. Austin is currently working on a project to do puppet shows for Syrian, and South-Asian refugees.

GREGORY MESSA

TANESHA PAYNE

Art Form: Dance

Tanesha Payne is a performer, choreographer and educator who resides in San Antonio, Texas. She holds a BFA in Dance from Texas State University and is currently working on her MFA in Choreography at Jacksonville University. In 2003, Mrs. Payne became a member of Danceworks, the repertory company at Florida State College of Jacksonville. While on a full talent grant, her schedule was inundated with training, performance work, and directing FSCJ's Ensemble. Seeking more experience, Tanesha moved to New York City. Although accepted into the certificate and fellowship programs at The Ailey School, her heart led her to join Arch Dance Company under Jennifer Archibald where she served as rehearsal director. During her three years with the company, she taught master classes and performed across the US. During the off-season, Tanesha made appearances in music videos, fashion shows, and performed as a backup dancer for local artists. Tanesha has had the privilege of working with and/or performing the works of Alonzo King, Paul Taylor, Michael Foley, KT Nelson, and Lula Washington to name a few. In 2019, Tanesha was selected to perform with Rennie Harris's Pure Movement in the presentation of "Lifted" at the Jo Long Theatre in San Antonio. Most recently, Mrs. Payne was the featured dancer in Musical Bridges Around the World's documentary "The Quilt" and San Antonio's Poet Laureate Andrea "Vocab" Sander's video "Nouveaux". Tanesha Payne's choreography has been recognized at American College Dance Festival, Bates Dance Festival, and San Antonio Dances.

KATRIN LUDWIG

Art Form: Puppetry

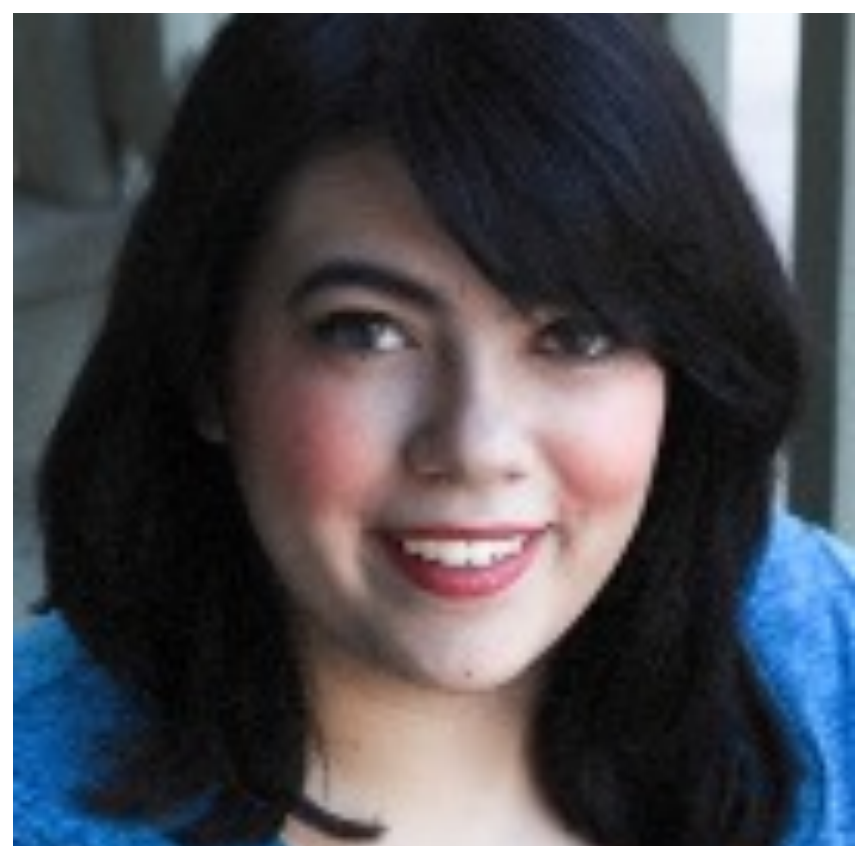

With a degree in Theater from Northwestern University, and further education at the Drama Studio London-Berkely, the Henson Group and Madcap Puppets, Katrin has served as an artistic director, stage manager, co-producer of award winning one acts, stage, tech, as well as performer from Ohio to California. In Illinois, she co-founded a touring puppet theater company: Walkabout Puppets. This company used creative drama and audience participation with their K-8 audience. Walkabout Puppets had an arts-in-education component and provided residencies to underserved communities in the Midwest. These residencies incorporated visual arts, music, drama, writing and the class curriculum designed to support Illinois Stat Standards. In San Antonio, in addition to 4 years with SA Wolf Trap, she has worked with Classic Theatre in their education program and with Magik Theatre as Puppet Designer and Choreographer as well as actor. In teaching, Katrin encourages integrating different art forms with other subjects demonstrating that art, history, science etc. interrelate. "The arts are part of a lifelong education; informing us of other cultures and perspectives thereby broadening a life view, life thinking and life paths. Everyone should have the opportunity to experience and/or create art, whether visual, written, musical or dramatic."

PETER FLAMM

In San Antonio, Peter has performed with many local groups including the San Antonio Opera, the Pocket Opera, Musical Offerings, and chamber performances at Trinity University and UTSA. Peter has performed as a concerto soloist with the San Antonio Symphony and the Mid Texas Symphony. Locally, Peter has served on the faculties of the Music Advancement Program at St. Philip's College, Trinity University and UTSA. Peter has performed with orchestras across the country, including the Cleveland Orchestra, St. Paul Chamber Orchestra and the Atlanta Symphony, as well as with the Washington National Opera and the National Symphony at the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts and at Wolf Trap. He has also performed regularly with the Strings Festival in Steamboat Springs, CO.

DANIELLE MCCUNE

Art Form: Dance, Musical Theatre

Danielle McCune is a teaching artist that specializes in dance and musical theatre from the San Antonio area. She brings over ten years of teaching experience between dance and theatre, primarily working with ages 2-12. Danielle is a graduate from Texas State University, where she holds a BFA in Theatre (Performance and Production emphasis) and a Minor in Music. She is also a proud member of the school's College of Fine Arts and Communication's Council of Scholars, in addition to multiple honor societies. Over the years, she has been involved in close to forty productions in the San Antonio/New Braunfels area, most of which she has choreographed. Fifteen of these productions were working with students ages 4-19 to bring classic favorites to life. She now works with CYT in New Braunfels to train young performers, as well as mentor their teen leadership program. She enjoys sharing her love of the arts and the confidence it has given her (on and off stage) with her classroom teachers and finding their special way to incorporate the arts into their school day.
