JANUARY 26TH | 12:00PM | THE TOBIN CENTER

Did you know?

Christina and Andrés are 123 Andrés, a GRAMMY-winning music duo for kids and families. Their show Actívate is full of fun songs in English and Spanish that make everyone want to sing, dance, and move. With music, humor, and dance moves, they invite kids—and even adults—to join the fun!

¿Dónde está Juana? Around the Americas with 123 Andrés is an incredibly lively and engaging show that uses music and story to investigate geography and social studies connections. Andrés and Christina of 123 Andrés will captivate your young listeners, as they move back and forth from Spanish to English in ways that help the whole audience to understand their meaning and sing with them in both languages.

The Artistic Duo:

123 Andrés is the husband-and-wife team of Andrés and Christina. Together, they are a Latin Grammy-winning duo with a lively show that gets families singing, dancing, and using their imagination. Andrés Salguero plays the guitar and saxophone and sings. He is also a teaching artist. Christina Sanabria sings and dances. She is also a teacher and performer.
